Four Decades of sharing the Wonderful World of Dance

NEWSLETTER

We hope that everyone enjoyed the Thanksgiving Holiday with family and friends. We certainly did. This Sat. evening is the West Cape May Christmas Parade. The parade kicks off at 5P.M. Our companies will be performing "From Christmas to New Years". It's a taste of New York right on Broadway only through the streets of West Cape May and Cape May.

Company members are reminded that you are to bring your hats to all of your company classes this week and to Sat. rehearsal. Make sure that you have your elastic on your hat and your name inside. Rehearsal is on Sat. from 10A.M-12Noon. Wear clothes to go outside. We will rehearse outside during part of rehearsal. You are then to return to the studio at 3:15 P.M. in full make up and costume. We will leave the studio at 4P.M. for the line up in West Cape May. (We need one or two more wagons for Apprentice. We also need parents to pull them.) Company members are reminded to layer sensibly and wear a coat to the parade line-up. Parents are reminded that the parade finishes across from the Victorian Towers. You must be there to meet your child. Check the Web for all other info. Also take notice that you must pay for the balance of your parade costume and classes. These costumes will be used in recital and possibly part of Disney.

This is the Watch Week for all of the classes that are in the Tomlin Studio.

We remind everyone again that all recital costumes must be paid. No costumes will be ordered if not paid for. Also any students with an outstanding lesson account will not have costumes ordered even if they have been paid.

There are still candy carriers available from Miss Faith. (Please take notice that all candy accounts must also be paid in full by Dec. 21, 2009.

Student of the week goes to Janel Concepcion. Janel is 9 years old and is in the 4th grade at Lower Township. Janel has shown excellent responsibility to her work in her tap class and her jazz class. She also has a great attitude. Keep up the great work, Janel!!

Company member of the week goes to Vanessa Flemming. Vanessa is 10 years old and is a member of the Mini Company. She is in the 4th grade in Middle Township. Vanessa has shown excellent responsibility to her choreography in company. She has also shown great work with her stage presence. She is doing equally as well in her classes of tap and jazz. Kudos to you Vanessa!!
